BUSINESS NOTES

New York Toy Fair to Open in February-Truth in Fabries Urged.

Good Sales at Glove Auction. Bidding at the first large auction sales of gloves ever held in this country yesterday was reported up to expectations with prices up to standard. The sale began at 10 a.m. in the showrooms of Wilmerding. Morris & Mitchell, 470 Broome street, and the stock was expected to be disposed of by evening. The auction was held by the American Glovers-Auctions' Sales Corporation of Gloversauction was held by the American Glove Auctions' Sales Corporation of Glovers-ville, N. Y., and more than 10,000 dozens of men's, women's and children's assorted gloves were put on the block. By noon about a third of the stock had been sold. Some of the largest manufacturers and retailers were among the purchasers. The stock consisted of regular lines of gloves, including mercerized lined, fabric and woolen gloves and mackinaw mittens.

Bath Robes Have Good Sale.

Contrary to the general trend of utility buying prevalent to-day, a large wholesale house reports the demand for bath robes exceptionally heavy, their sales averaging in 1921 about 25 per cent.

BID AND ASKED QUOTATIONS

BID A more than those of any previous year.

Blanket robes are quoted as the biggest sellers and stik robes also are said to be in fair demand. The latter type of robe, however, is declared to be merely in its infancy as a seller. The popularity of blanket robes is due to the great number of women who buy them as gifts for soldiers. Prices for all kinds of robes are quoted at about 25 per cent. lower than formerly and at $3.25 to $10.

Price of Work Shirts Normal.

The return in price of work shirts to the $1 level is said to have resulted in what might be classed as a boom for the sale of that kind of shirt. Reports from those in close touch with the situation indicate record breaking sales during September and October. A manufacturer said yesterday that the present supply of work shirts is hardly likely to meet the requirements, but predicts an immediate falling off in demand for them if their price be increased to more than $1. The whole tendency shows, according to this manufacturer, that the public is coming back to the moderate priced shirts.

A new tire cover which, instead of being made of enamelled goods, is made of long grain rubberized fabric which will neither crack nor peel and which fits the tire snugly, has been put on the market by the Cincinnati Auto Specialty Company of Cincinnati, Ohio. The cover is equipmed with metal evolets are
